On the 12th inst., from the person of James Harrington, York,—12s. in silver. Vide Apprehensions.—C.I. 357.

During the month of August, 1877, from a box marked XOX, MC, OBC, 28,—5000 sovereigns, the property of the Oriental Bank Corporation. The sovereigns were packed in a case inside an outer case, close to the wharf at Sydney, N.S. Wales, in the presence of Mr. Roche, second officer of the P. & O. Steamer "Avoca," and the P. & O. Company's Agent. The box was placed on board a tug steamer, and taken on board the "Avoca," which vessel sailed for Melbourne; there, the box was transhipped on board the P. & O. Steamer "China" for Galle. On arriving at King George's Sound, the Bullion room was opened to put in a small box, and was not again re-opened until her arrival at Galle, where she arrived on the 30th August. On opening the box when landed, the money was gone, the lid of the inner box was found open about two inches on one side, the seals of the outer box appeared to have been cut with a sharp heated knife, and re-placed; on that trip Mr. Roche exchanged duties with the second officer of the "China," and proceeded to Galle in her.—C.I. 358.
