Extract from New Zealand Police Gazette.

April 1st, 1885.

Information is requested respecting William Bramley, a native of England, a farmer, about 32 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, slight, active appearance, fair complexion, light brown hair and moustache, very slight whiskers, chin shaved, well educated, very gentlemanly manner; usually wears light tweed suit, and round black hard felt hat. He was seen on the evening of the 8th ult., at Governor's Bay, and early on the following morning his clothes (except hat) which he wore the previous evening were found on the Beach Road, Governor's Bay, about 1½ miles from his residence. A towel was on the top of the clothing, suggesting that he had gone into the sea to bathe. An unsuccessful search was made for his body in the harbour, about where the clothes were found. He, a few days previously, sold most of his stock, farm implements, &c., and received on the 7th ult., a cheque for £79 from the auctioneer, which he cashed, receiving the greater portion of the money in gold. The Police are of opinion that he was not drowned but has left the district. He at one time had a farm at Harewood Road, near Papanui. He is inquired for at the instance of his wife.

Extract from Tasmania Police Gazette.April 3rd.

Information is earnestly requested respecting one William Talbot. He was convicted at Lancaster, England, on the 21st April, 1830, and transported to Tasmania, on the 26th June, 1830, in the ship "Persian." He received a Conditional Pardon in October, 1846. Inquiry is made at the instance of his son John.

Information is requested of Thomas Brydges Evered, who was transported for a term of seven years, to Tasmania, for forgery, in October, 1842, per ship "Duchess of Northumberland." He received a Ticket-of-Leave in January, 1847, and a Certificate of Freedom in December, 1849. During his sentence he was in the employ of Mr. Horne, Bowerbank, Westbury, in 1845, and of John Thomas, of Deloraine, in 1846. He is inquired for at the instance of a firm of London solicitors, who state that there is a considerable sum of money bequeathed to him.

Miscellaneous.

FRANCIS ALLENDER; charged at Greenough, on the 22nd ult., by Corporal Osborne, with being the owner of an unlicensed dog. Fined £2 and costs.

THOMAS CULLER; charged at Greenough, on the 24th ult., by P.C. Buckley, with being the owner of an unlicensed dog. Fined £2 and costs.

HENEY McCORMACK; charged at Fremantle, on the 27th ult., by P.C. Pryer, with disorderly conduct. Fined £2 or one month h.l.

GEORGE ROBSON and JOHN TROY; charged at York, on the 29th ult., by Edward Bryce, with assault. Fined £2 10s. and costs, each, or one month h.l. each.

Special Inquiry.

Officers in charge of Sub-Districts will cause inquiry to be made with a view of ascertaining if James Mann is at present in this Colony. Description—slight, age about 23 years, 5ft. 2in. high, dark complexion, regular features, with a little color in the cheeks, dark eyes, thin black moustache and hair; dresses neatly; walks with a long swinging stride. Native of Manchester, England. Arrived at Sydney from London per s.s. "Liguria" on the 15th July, 1883, and followed the occupation of an ironmonger's assistant until November following, at which time he started in business as aerated water manufacturer. Left Sydney on the 6th March, 1884, and was heard of the following month in Perth, Fremantle, or Albany. There is no record of his having arrived in this Colony by the name of Mann, and as he levanted from Sydney with about £300, thereby defrauding his creditors, it is very probable that if he is here he has assumed another name. Result of inquiries to be forwarded to Detective Office, Perth. ^{B1/0033.}

Extract from New Zealand Police Gazette.

April 1st, 1885.

Information is requested respecting William Bramley, a native of England, a farmer, about 32 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, slight, active appearance, fair complexion, light brown hair and moustache, very slight whiskers, chin shaved, well educated, very gentlemanly manner; usually wears light tweed suit, and round black hard felt hat. He was seen on the evening of the 8th ult., at Governor's Bay, and early on the following morning his clothes (except hat) which he wore the previous evening were found on the Beach Road, Governor's Bay, about 1½ miles from his residence. A towel was on the top of the clothing, suggesting that he had gone into the sea to bathe. An unsuccessful search was made for his body in the harbour, about where the clothes were found. He, a few days previously, sold most of his stock, farm implements, &c., and received on the 7th ult., a cheque for £79 from the auctioneer, which he cashed, receiving the greater portion of the money in gold. The Police are of opinion that he was not drowned but has left the district. He at one time had a farm at Harewood Road, near Papanui. He is inquired for at the instance of his wife.

Extract from Tasmania Police Gazette.

April 3rd.

Information is earnestly requested respecting one William Talbot. He was convicted at Lancaster, England, on the 21st April, 1830, and transported to Tasmania, on the 26th June, 1830, in the ship "Persian." He received a Conditional Pardon in October, 1846. Inquiry is made at the instance of his son John.

Information is requested of Thomas Brydges Evered, who was transported for a term of seven years, to Tasmania, for forgery, in October, 1842, per ship "Duchess of Northumberland." He received a Ticket-of-Leave in January, 1847, and a Certificate of Freedom in December, 1849. During his sentence he was in the employ of Mr. Horne, Bowerbank, Westbury, in 1845, and of John Thomas, of Deloraine, in 1846. He is inquired for at the instance of a firm of London solicitors, who state that there is a considerable sum of money bequeathed to him.

OFFENCES NOT OTHERWISE DESCRIBED.

Robert Day is charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having, between the 9th and 16th ult., at Christchurch, absconded or being about to abscond from his bail to appear at the Supreme Court, Christchurch, on the 8th inst., to answer to a charge of having forged a cheque for £1,000.—Description: English, a farmer, between forty and forty-five years of age, 6ft. high, stout build, broad shoulders, very large rough hands, swarthy complexion, good looking features, dark brown beard, whiskers and moustache worn fairly long, a yellowish tint at points of moustache, heavy eyebrows, mark of an old wound on one of shins, believed the right one, generally wears dark grey clothes. He will likely alter his appearance and dress, with a view of endeavoring to leave the colony. He left Kaikoura on the 16th ult., by the steamer Wakatu, for Wellington, under the name of Campbell, and was then shaved, except beard and moustache, and wore a dark tweed coat and cord trousers. He may have been joined at Wellington by a woman named Bush alias Dash alias Ticen, who left Lyttelton on the 12th ult., as a steerage passenger by the steamer Waihora, for Wellington. She is about twenty-eight years of age, stout build, good looking features, freckled, fair complexion, light colored hair, wore a greyish colored ulster, greenish colored hat, and had with her a child five months old; she had also with her a brown leather portmanteau, labelled "Mrs. Ticen, Wellington," the property of the offender, and two boxes of her own, one of which was painted yellow, and bore a similar address to that on the portmanteau. Offender is also charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having forged the name of Daniel Day, to a promissory note for £1,000. He may assume the name of Hornby. He and the woman will likely have large sums of money in gold in their possession. Photographs of offender in Inspector's Office, Wellington.

OFFENCES NOT OTHERWISE DESCRIBED.

Robert Day is charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having, between the 9th and 16th ult., at Christchurch, absconded or being about to abscond from his bail to appear at the Supreme Court, Christchurch, on the 8th inst., to answer to a charge of having forged a cheque for £1,000.—Description: English, a farmer, between forty and forty-five years of age, 6ft. high, stout build, broad shoulders, very large rough hands, swarthy complexion, good looking features, dark brown beard, whiskers and moustache worn fairly long, a yellowish tint at points of moustache, heavy eyebrows, mark of an old wound on one of shins, believed the right one, generally wears dark grey clothes. He will likely alter his appearance and dress, with a view of endeavoring to leave the colony. He left Kaikoura on the 16th ult., by the steamer Wakatu, for Wellington, under the name of Campbell, and was then shaved, except beard and moustache, and wore a dark tweed coat and cord trowsers. He may have been joined at Wellington by a woman named Bush alias Dash alias Ticen, who left Lyttelton on the 12th ult., as a steerage passenger by the steamer Waihora, for Wellington. She is about twenty-eight years of age, stout build, good looking features, freckled, fair complexion, light colored hair, wore a greyish colored ulster, greenish colored hat, and had with her a child five months old; she had also with her a brown leather portmanteau, labelled "Mrs. Ticen, Wellington," the property of the offender, and two boxes of her own, one of which was painted yellow, and bore a similar address to that on the portmanteau. Offender is also charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having forged the name of Daniel Day, to a promissory note for £1,000. He may assume the name of Hornby. He and the woman will likely have large sums of money in gold in their possession. Photographs of offender in Inspector's Office, Wellington.

Extract from New South Wales Police Gazette,

April 1st, 1885.

Information is requested respecting Julia Bateman, sometimes called Berry, supposed a native of Dublin, a cook or general servant, about 41 years of age, about 5ft. 5in. high, slight build, dark complexion, long visage, dark hair turning grey. She arrived in Wellington from London about seven years ago, and acted as housekeeper for John Ward, late a drummer in the 65th Regiment, and a messenger in the Government Buildings up to the time of his death, which occurred about six years ago. She left Porirua about four years ago, and has not since been heard of. She is inquired for at the instance of her sister, who resides at New York.
