Special Inquiry.

Special Inquiry is requested for EMANUEL H. HERSHEY alias H. E. HENRY, who is charged on warrant with embezzlement of $65,000 of public moneys, and with being a defaulter as Treasurer of the County of Lancaster, State of Pennsylvania, U.S.A. Description: Age 50 years, height 5ft. 9in. to 9½in., heavy, compactly built, robust and vigorous, walks rapidly, with firm, strong step and swing of his body, weight 190 to 200lbs., florid complexion, brown hair, dark brown moustache (which may be shaved off). He is blind in the right eye, the eyeball being covered with a yellow-white opaque cartilage or ligament; the eyelid of blind eye is very slightly closed, making the eye, upon close inspection, appear smaller than the left eye. He has always worn gold-rimmed spectacles. He has been engaged in several lines of mercantile trade, and understands country store-keeping for the sale of phosphates, dry goods, boots, shoes, hardware, etc.; also cigar manufacturing, leaf tobacco, and grain business. He rarely uses liquor to excess, but has been addicted to daily whisky drinking, particularly in the morning. He has been a stock and grain speculator on margin, and will take a hand at draw poker and every other gambling game. Was last seen in Philadelphia, U.S.A., on December 24, 1899. $1,000 reward is offered by the District Attorney of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, U.S.A., for offender's arrest. Information to the Criminal Investigation Branch, Perth, where offender's photo. is filed.—A2/4602.

Police Gazette,

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

[Published by Authority.]

This Gazette is published for Police information only, and the Police throughout the Colony are instructed to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the contents.

By order,

T. KELLY, Chief Clerk.

No. 13.]

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28.

[1900.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

The Premier (the Minister controlling the Police Department) wishes to express to the Members of the Police Force his profound sorrow at the lamented death, on the 26th inst., of the late Commissioner of Police, Lieut.-Colonel George Braithwaite Phillips.

The long and valued services of Lieut.-Colonel Phillips in the Civil Service of Western Australia, extending over nearly half a century, were greatly appreciated by the Government, and his high personal character was recognised and esteemed throughout the Colony.

The example of the late Commissioner, both as a loyal and zealous servant of the Crown, and as a private citizen, may well be followed by members of the Civil Service of the Colony.

JOHN FORREST,

Premier.

Premier's Department,

March 27, 1900.
