(Sgd.) FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. 1/1903.—It is hereby notified that in accordance with the ruling of Cabinet, officers provided with quarters will at their own expense execute such repairs as are generally done by the tenant in rented premises.

In cases where doubt exists as to whether the Government or occupant should bear the expense of any item of repair or maintenance, a report containing full particulars should be submitted for decision.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

9/1/1903.

C.O. 2/1903.—It has been brought to my notice that cab fares paid by the police for the conveyance of persons charged with drunkenness, etc., to lock-up, are, in some instances, deducted from the bail money deposited by such persons, and forfeited.

The practice is irregular and must be discontinued. In cases where the amount spent in cab fares cannot be recovered, the Department must bear the cost, but on no account must deductions for the purpose be made from bail moneys.

FRED HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

13-1-03.

C.O. 3/1903.—The instructions contained in C.O. 12/1898 in regard to the manner in which numbers shall be worn by the police are hereby cancelled.

In future the two sets of numbers supplied for cap and helmet, respectively, must be worn on the collar of the tunic, one on the right side and one on the left, one inch and a half from the collar end.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.
