Special Inquiry.

Murder of Michael Naughton at Cue on June 10th, 1906.

The result of the post-mortem examination shows that death was caused by a bullet from a .32 calibre firearm, rifled in four grooves, probably an imitation Smith & Wesson, or some other cheap central fire revolver.

There appears to be little doubt that the motive of the crime was robbery, and that the offender had knowledge of the habits of the deceased.

Careful inquiry must be made to ascertain if any members of the criminal class are known to have been in the Murchison District at the time of the murder, and also if any of them are in possession of a weapon of the above description.

Special and urgent inquiry is also requested for the whereabouts of a man of the following description:—Name unknown, medium build, with well set shoulders, age apparently from 26 to 30 years, height between 5ft. 7in. and 9in., brown hair growing low on the forehead, thick in front and inclined to curl, large light clear eyes, prominent nose, rather round face with prominent cheek bones, clear skin, clean shaven; wears blue serge suit and cap; of flash appearance, and of the larrikin class; uses very bad language when in drink; associates with low-class women; was cohabiting with Maud Lipschut alias Hill, at Day Dawn, until the 15th June, 1906, but is not now in her company. Was last seen at Cue on the early morning of the 15th June, 1906.

Also for DAVID GOLDING, native of Newcastle, New South Wales, medium to stout build, age apparently 26 years, height 5ft. 7in., dark brown hair, thick and low on forehead, thick eyebrows, large grey eyes, rather broad nose, oval face, sallow complexion, clean shaven, small scar inside right forearm, third and fourth fingers of right hand slightly contracted, scar right side of forehead, scar right jaw, small mole left side of face, mole left side neck, associates with criminals; was discharged from Fremantle Gaol on 17th August, 1905, after serving sentence for assault and robbery (vide photo. group, November, 1903). Was seen at Boulder about 4 months ago.

Information to the Criminal Investigation Branch, Perth, or Officer in charge, Cue.—A4/2509.

Special inquiry is requested by the Perth Police for the whereabouts of ALBERT ERNEST HEINZ for the purpose of executing a distress warrant in connection with a charge of stealing preferred against him at Perth on the 18th January, when he was ordered to make restitution and pay costs, amounting to £16 17s. 1d.
