COMMONWEALTH GOVERNMENT.

£100 REWARD.

Whereas Frederick William Forwood, formerly of Port Adelaide, Customs Agent, has been charged with forging a seal of His Majesty's Customs, Port Adelaide, and a warrant issued, his apprehension is now sought, he having absconded. Forwood was last heard of at Sydney on 29th July, 1906. Description: about 30 years of age, 5ft. 5½ ins., fair complexion, medium build, thin fair moustache only, flushed cheeks, stoops when walking, peculiar gait as though feet tender; generally wears fine blue serge sac suit and white straw hat; a heavy cigar smoker; addicted to drink; fond of racing. The above reward will be paid to any person giving information leading to Forwood's arrest in any State or country within the extradition treaty for the return of fugitive offenders. Information can be forwarded to the police or Customs authorities of any State in the Commonwealth of Australia.—A4/3104.
