Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. 11/1907.

SUNDAY LEAVE.

The following copy of a motion passed by the Legislative Assembly on the 13th December, 1906, is published for general information:—

“That the members of the Police Force throughout the State should have one Sunday, or days equivalent, per month as a day of rest and recreation without prejudice to any of their privileges.

“This shall not apply to Stations where less than two Constables are employed.”

District Officers will at once make arrangements to give effect to the terms of the resolution as far as practicable in their respective districts, and report to me to what extent such can be complied with, making due allowance for the efficient performance of Police duty in all cases.

Wherever possible the Sunday leave should be granted, and where this is not possible the equivalent must be allowed.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

21st March, 1907.
