SPECIAL INQUIRY.

CILDAH WELLS has been found near Mt. Magnet.

Special inquiry is requested by the Manila Police, Philippine Islands, for the whereabouts of ROSS W. DOUGLASS, who is wanted for embezzlement and forgery. Description: Medium build, age 31 years, looks older; height 5ft. 8in., very dark brown hair, almost black, with a slight tinge of grey, parted in the middle; deeply sunken blue grey eyes, heavy eye brows, clean shaven, but can raise a moustache and beard, prominent ears, sallow complexion; a good clerk and penman, and a native of America; small mole on the right side of nose, and the end is beginning to show signs of drinking; has a habit of brushing his hair back from his forehead with his hand; while smoking takes the cigar from the mouth and holds it in a line with his chin stroking it with his little finger; stoops slightly when standing; when drinking is very talkative and quarrelsome; when sober is of quiet disposition. He left Manila on the 9th April last for Victoria, Hongkong, and was accompanied by an Australian prostitute named Birdie Maloney, who is described as follows:—Stout build, height 5ft. 7in., reddish blond hair, dark eyes, long sharp nose, fair complexion, uses cosmetics. Both of them will probably have their clothing marked with the name of some Manila store. If traced, to be kept under surveillance and information immediately wired to the Criminal Investigation Branch, Perth.—A4/7164.
