SPECIAL INQUIRY.

£1,000 REWARD.

Special inquiry is requested by the Dublin Police, Ireland, with a view of tracing the articles enumerated below, which were stolen from a safe in the Office of Arms, Dublin Castle, during the month of June last, and a reward of £1,000 is offered to any person giving such information as will lead to the apprehension of the thief and the recovery of the property or in proportion to the amount recovered. Description of articles:—A diamond star of the Grand Master of the Order of St. Patrick, composed of brilliants (Brazilian stones) of the purest water, 4 $\frac{5}{8}$ by 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches, consisting of eight points, four greater and four lesser, issuing from a centre enclosing a cross of rubies and a trefoil of emeralds surrounding a sky blue enamel circle with words "Quis Separabit, MDCCLXXXIII." in rose diamonds engraved on back. Value about £14,000. A diamond badge of the Grand Master of the Order of St. Patrick, set in silver containing a trefoil in emeralds on a ruby cross surrounded by a sky blue enamelled circle with "Quis Separabit, MDCCLXXXIII." in rose diamonds, surrounded by a wreath of trefoils in emeralds, the whole enclosed by a circle of large single Brazilian stones of the finest water, surmounted by a crowned harp in diamonds and loop, also in Brazilian stones. Total size of oval, 3 by 2 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches; height 5 $\frac{5}{8}$ inches. Value £16,000. Five collars of Knight's Companions of the Order of St. Patrick, composed of 18ct. gold, hall-marked, with roses and harps alternately tied together with knots of gold, the roses enamelled alternately, white leaves within red and red leaves within white, in the centre of the collar an Imperial jewelled Crown surmounting a harp of gold. One of the collars has attached a Circular Badge of the Order, composed wholly of enamel. Some of the collars are stamped with the maker's name, "West and Son, 18 and 19 College Green, Dublin." Value £1,050. Most of the collars had names and dates of investitures of past Knights of the Order engraved on the backs of links. A dark morocco leather jewel box, about 8 by 5 by 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches with Bramah lock and black stiff cloth cover, lined with green velvet, fitted with tray, with divisions and place for rings, containing the following:—Earrings: A large and long drop, with large oval diamond in centre, set in silver to the front and gold at back; Brazilian stones, set clear, brilliant cut; a large oval Brazilian diamond drop, brilliant cut, similarly set; a pair of Brazilian diamond earrings, with small drops. Brooch: A large pink topaz brooch set round with diamonds, with pink topaz pendant with diamonds. Rings: A half hoop ring of 5 large Brazilian brilliants, clear setting; an old half hoop ring, double row of small Brazilian diamonds; a half hoop ring of six pearls; a gold ring with diamond in centre and opal at each side; a light blue enamel ring with small conventional shaped enamel leaves with a diamond between each leaf all round, one diamond missing; a ring set with a ruby or almandine in centre, with white stone on each side, probably white sapphires; a very old ring having two hands in white enamel with ruffles set with rubies at each wrist, holding a heart-shaped diamond in old-fashioned silver setting, surrounded by 3 diamonds, giving the appearance of a crowned heart. Value of contents of box about £1,500. Information to the Criminal Investigation Branch, Perth.—A4/7685.
