CIRCULAR ORDERS AND MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

Police Department, Chief Office,
Perth, 18th December, 1907.

C.O. 37/1907.—The following returns and other information at present supplied to Chief Office and the C.I. Branch, will be discontinued forthwith:—

P. 49.—Quarterly Return of Horses.

Occurrence Sheets from Roebourne and Kimberley Districts. These should be retained in the District Office.

Shipping reports from ports in the Roebourne and Kimberley Districts.

Return of Missing Friends and Police Gazette inquiries.

Return of Thieves and Suspects.

Memoranda for the Police Gazette relating to the following charges:—Drunkenness, Disorderly Conduct, Obscene Language, Breaches of Wines Beer and Spirit Sale Act, Railway By-laws and Municipal By-laws, where the punishment inflicted is less than three months imprisonment. Where the arrest is on warrant, however, the result must always be forwarded.

When a Missing Friend is traced a report should be at once forwarded direct to the C.I. Branch, Perth; and the station books should show what inquiries of this nature have been made from time to time. The "Thieves and Suspects" book should be continued, and the movements of such persons reported to the C.I. Branch without delay.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.
