Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

Service of Summons by Police in Civil cases.

C.O. $\frac{13}{96}$ (C.S.O. $\frac{1264}{96}$).—The following opinion of the Honourable the Attorney-General with reference to the Police serving summonses in Civil cases is published for the information and guidance of the Police throughout the Colony:—

“I am clearly of opinion that the Police should not serve Summonses from the Local Courts. If the Bailiff is not available the parties themselves can obtain the Magistrate's authority for any person to effect service. See s. 10 of 58 Vic., 13.”

SEP. BURT,
Attorney-General.
25-4-96.

GEO. PHILLIPS,
Commissioner of Police.
