SUPPOSED ARSON—£100 REWARD.

WHEREAS on the night of the 30th of November, 1897, the premises known as M. J. Solomon & Co., situate at Wellington Street, West Perth, owned by Henry Goodhill, and occupied by M. J. And at an inquest held on the 16th day of December, 1897, before the District Coroner, the following verdict was returned:—"That we are of opinion the fire resulted at the hands of some person, and did not start from spontaneous combustion. We are, however, unable to state from the evidence before us whether the fire was the result of carelessness, or whether it was the wilful act of someone. We are satisfied the fire started within the building."

And whereas there is reason to suppose the said fire was the act of an incendiary, Notice is hereby given that if the said fire was wilfully caused, a reward of One hundred pounds will be paid for such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the guilty person or persons.
