Extract.

From New Zealand Police Gazette, 1898, page 161.

Thames.—THOMAS DAY (may assume the name of THOMAS D. KING) is charged on warrant with the theft, on the 9th April, 1897, of a cheque for £10 5s., drawn on the Bank of New Zealand, Thames; the property of John William Poulgrain, William Eddowes, and Arthur C. Rae, as trustees of the Court Pride of Parnell Lodge of Forrester's. Offender, who was secretary to the lodge, is described as colonial, about 27 years of age, about 5ft. 6in. high, slim build, fresh complexion, dark hair and moustache only, lower front teeth blackened by smoking, small fine hands; carried a silver chain, with long twisted links, and large silver hunting watch, without glass; a school teacher; frequents hotels, and is fond of discussion. Supposed to have left Auckland on the 11th July last by the s.s. "Elingamite" for Sydney, probably en route to Western Australia, and will be well-known to most of the Thames miners now there. Was accompanied by a youth named Bert Rickitt, 18 years of age, short and stout, fresh complexion, dark hair, none on face, carried a silver curb chain. Offender is said to have a relation named King in the Customs Department, Sydney, and is known to Mr. John Agnew, manager of the Sons of Gwalior Mine, Mount Leonora, about 250 miles from Coolgardie. Arrest desirable, as there are several other charges pending, and his defalcations amount to about £100. A1 10485.
